Christ is the Head of the body

The body is not one member, but many

Now ye are the body of Christ and members in particular

Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also who shall believe in me through their word

That they all may be one

That the world may believe that Thou hast sent me

In April, 1948, the members of the student body organized themselves into the Mass Student Movement, with the purpose of unifying their efforts to aid in the completing of our administration building. The responsibility of generating operative suggestions on which they can take action is carried by a committee of five students elected each Fall by the three upper classes.

Current issues of importance which arise among the students are discussed, acted upon, by the Student Council, and then sent to the Administration for its approval. Though not handling matters of discipline, the Council, composed of a girl and boy from each class, does act as a vital organization by promoting student-staff relationships.

WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES

Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges requires that its members have scholarship, character, leadership, and potentiality for future usefulness to business and society. At Bryan, a sharpened mind led by the Spirit of God is considered to be one of the most effective tools Christian youth can possess. A pure character, shaped by the hand of God, is a necessity to one who would walk uprightly before his fellows. Leadership, too, is a prime quality present in the great men of God. Finally, potentiality for future usefulness is evident in those who are useful in their college days.

C . S . A . C O U N C I L

Composed of the Foreign Missions Fellowship, Child Evangelism Fellowship, Pastors' Fellowship, and the Lay Ambassadors, the mass organization of the Christian Service Association realized with new growth a mass of new problems, and the obvious need of someone to solve them. Chosen for this purpose is the C. S. A. Council, which has served to prove that effective organizations are the results of careful, prayerful direction.

FOREIGN MISSIONS FELLOWSHIP

The members of this organization believe God is leading them to the foreign fields. Through their year's activities, the Foreign Missions Fellowship has been used to bring to many other students the challenge of going and giving and praying.

The young men of the Student Pastors' Fellowship see their field of the Lord's service in the pastorate. Together they find companionship and valuable aid in the examination of various phases of pastoral work.

PASTORS' FELLOWSHIP

Not all of God's children have been chosen to be pastors and missionaries, but all have been commissioned to be His ambassadors. To the Christian laymen, this means living Christ in whatever walk of life He places them.

CHILD EVANGELISM

The burden of evangelizing children is being borne by these who gather for discussion of methods and aids to the presentation of God's Word. Recognizing the invitation in "Suffer the little children to come unto me," the members of the Child Evangelism Fellowship avail themselves of the opportunities for actual work with children in nearby homes and schools.

T H E C H O I R

The members of the choir are chosen by audition. Besides providing musical selections for services, they present several special programs throughout the year. How wondrously flow the songs of Zion from hearts that are tuned to the Maker of all things! The combination of tuned hearts and trained voices leaves a blessing with every listener.

Each summer, groups of Bryan's "Gospel Singers" bear testimony of God's grace in word and music. In their witness for Christ they represent the University family to our friends over the nation.

COMMONER STAFF

J. Oakley, Asst. Ed., V. Smiley, Sec., H. Goehring, Ed., Miss Batson, Advisor.

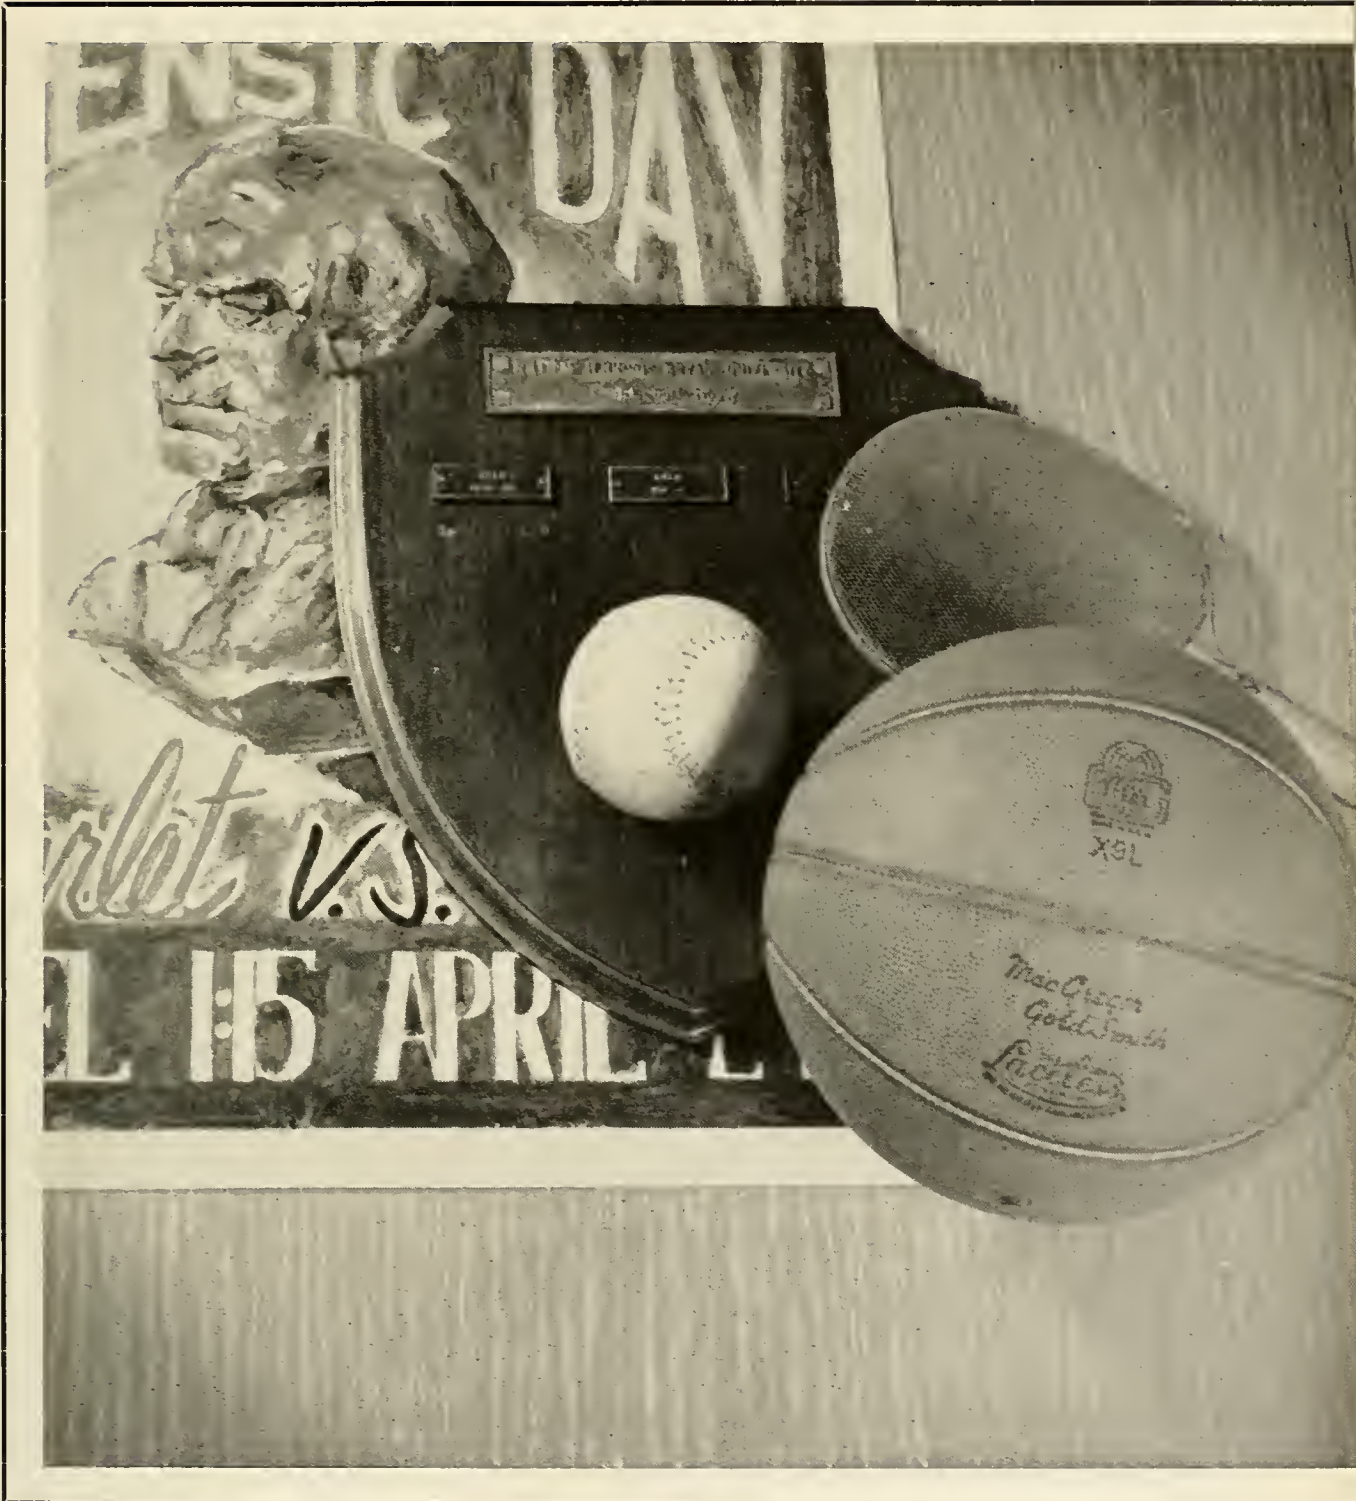

We now attend a college that bears the name of the Great Commoner who literally gave his life to protect the faith and character of the young people of America. The work of this staff has been to develop a pictorial of a small part of the history of that college. We have tried to do it well, for the glory of Christ and for the lasting pleasure of all who view its pages.

BASKETBALL

Though intercollegiate sports are not yet a part of our activities, Scarlet and Gold basketball and volleyball competition provides exercise and excitement for those participating as players, or as loyal fans.

VOLLEYBALL

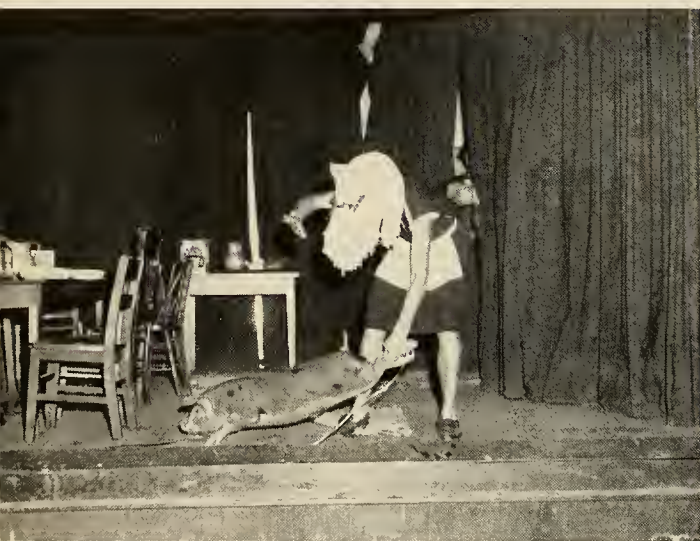

On Field Day, the Scarlets and Golds compete in various athletic contests, some requiring real athletic skill and others being of a more entertaining nature. Winners of each contest gain valuable points. At the end of the year's Scarlet and Gold competition, the side having the largest score has its name engraved on the specially-made plaque.

A N D F I E L D D A Y

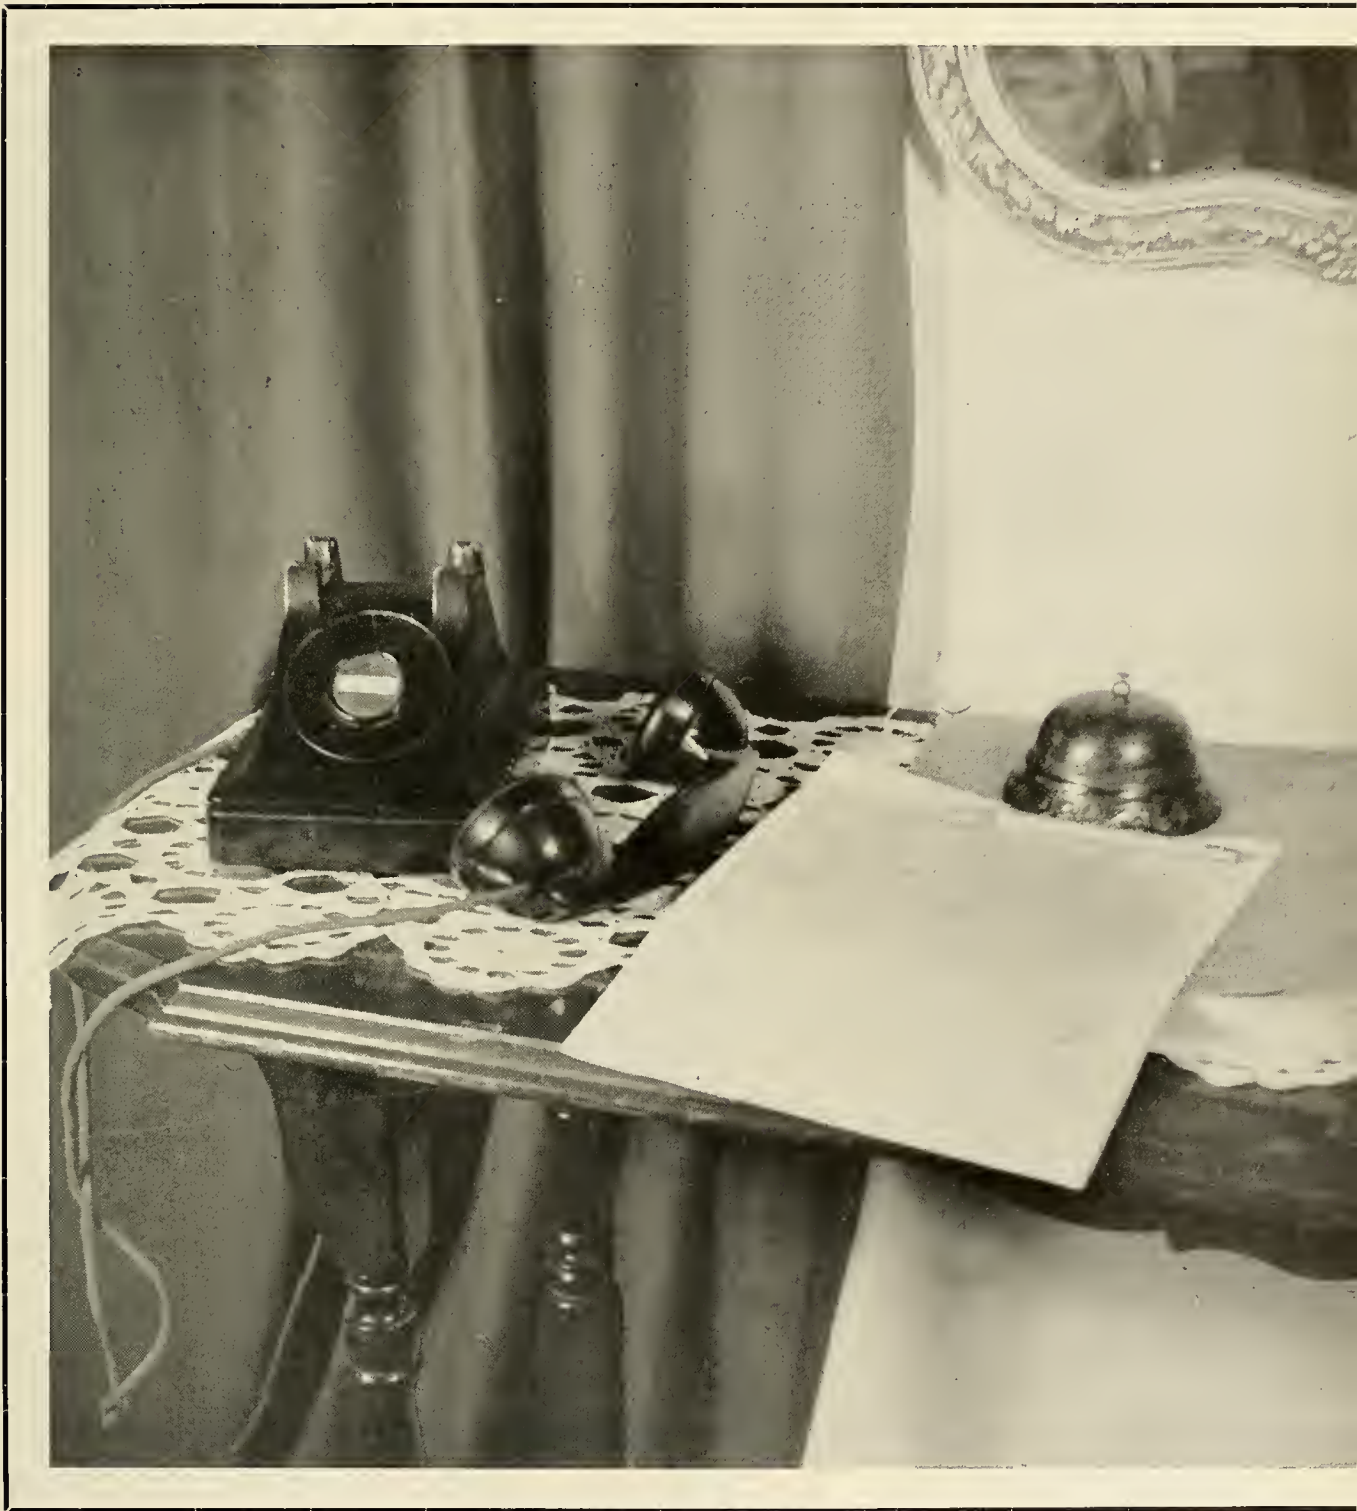

FORENSIC AND HUMOROUS PROGRAMS

The battle between Scarlets and Golds includes Forensic events as well as sports. An afternoon of spirited rivalry is always assured as the best talent from each side participates in dramatic readings and poetry, spelling, impromptus, extempores, book reviews, and orations. Humorous programs, a debate on a current problem, and after-dinner speeches complete the year's Forensic competition.

BIG DOIN'S

Here and there in our seemingly incessant activity, we halt for an evening of relaxation and association with the other members of the family on Bryan Hill. To know good rules of conduct and practice them is a vital part of one's preparation for life. Thus we learn even while we relax.
